TENDING LIVES THAT PRODUCE GOOD FRUIT

Psalm One

- 1 What delight comes to those who follow God's ways!
They won't walk in step with the wicked,
nor share the sinner's way,
nor be found sitting in the scorner's seat.
- 2 Their pleasure and passion is remaining true to the Word of "I Am,"
meditating day and night in his true revelation of light.
- 3 They will be standing firm like a flourishing tree
planted by God's design,
deeply rooted by the brooks of bliss,
bearing fruit in every season of their lives.
They are never dry, never fainting,
ever blessed, ever prosperous.

Galatians Five

22 “But the fruit produced by the Holy Spirit within you is divine love in all its varied expressions: joy that overflows, peace that subdues, patience that endures, kindness in action, a life full of virtue, faith that prevails, gentleness of heart, and strength of spirit.”

Contempt:

“the feeling that a person or a thing is beneath consideration, worthless, or deserving scorn.”

“So may we never be arrogant, or look down on another...”

Those who “follow God’s ways” are not “found sitting in the scorner’s seat.”

A scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with soft, white and grey clouds, with a warm orange glow from the sun just below the horizon. In the foreground, a dark, silhouetted barn with a gabled roof stands on a grassy field. The barn has some faint, illegible text and a hexagonal logo on its side. A line of trees separates the field from the horizon. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.
